

The adage in business is the customer is always right. In New Jersey, millions have signed up for "Do Not Call" with the understanding that they, the customers, have chosen to eliminate unwanted solicitations. Please ensure businesses respect the wishes of consumers.